

15-16 March 2018

Portorož

Slovenia

Workshop 'Maritime Spatial Planning in Small Sea Spaces'

Maritime spatial planning in Estonia: challenges and solutions for planning small sea areas

Anni Konsap, Adviser of Planning Department, Estonian Ministry of Finance

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR MARITIME AFFAIRS AND FISHERIES

„We may be a small country, but we’re also a great one.“

/Hugh Grant as the British Prime Minister
(Love Actually, 2004)/

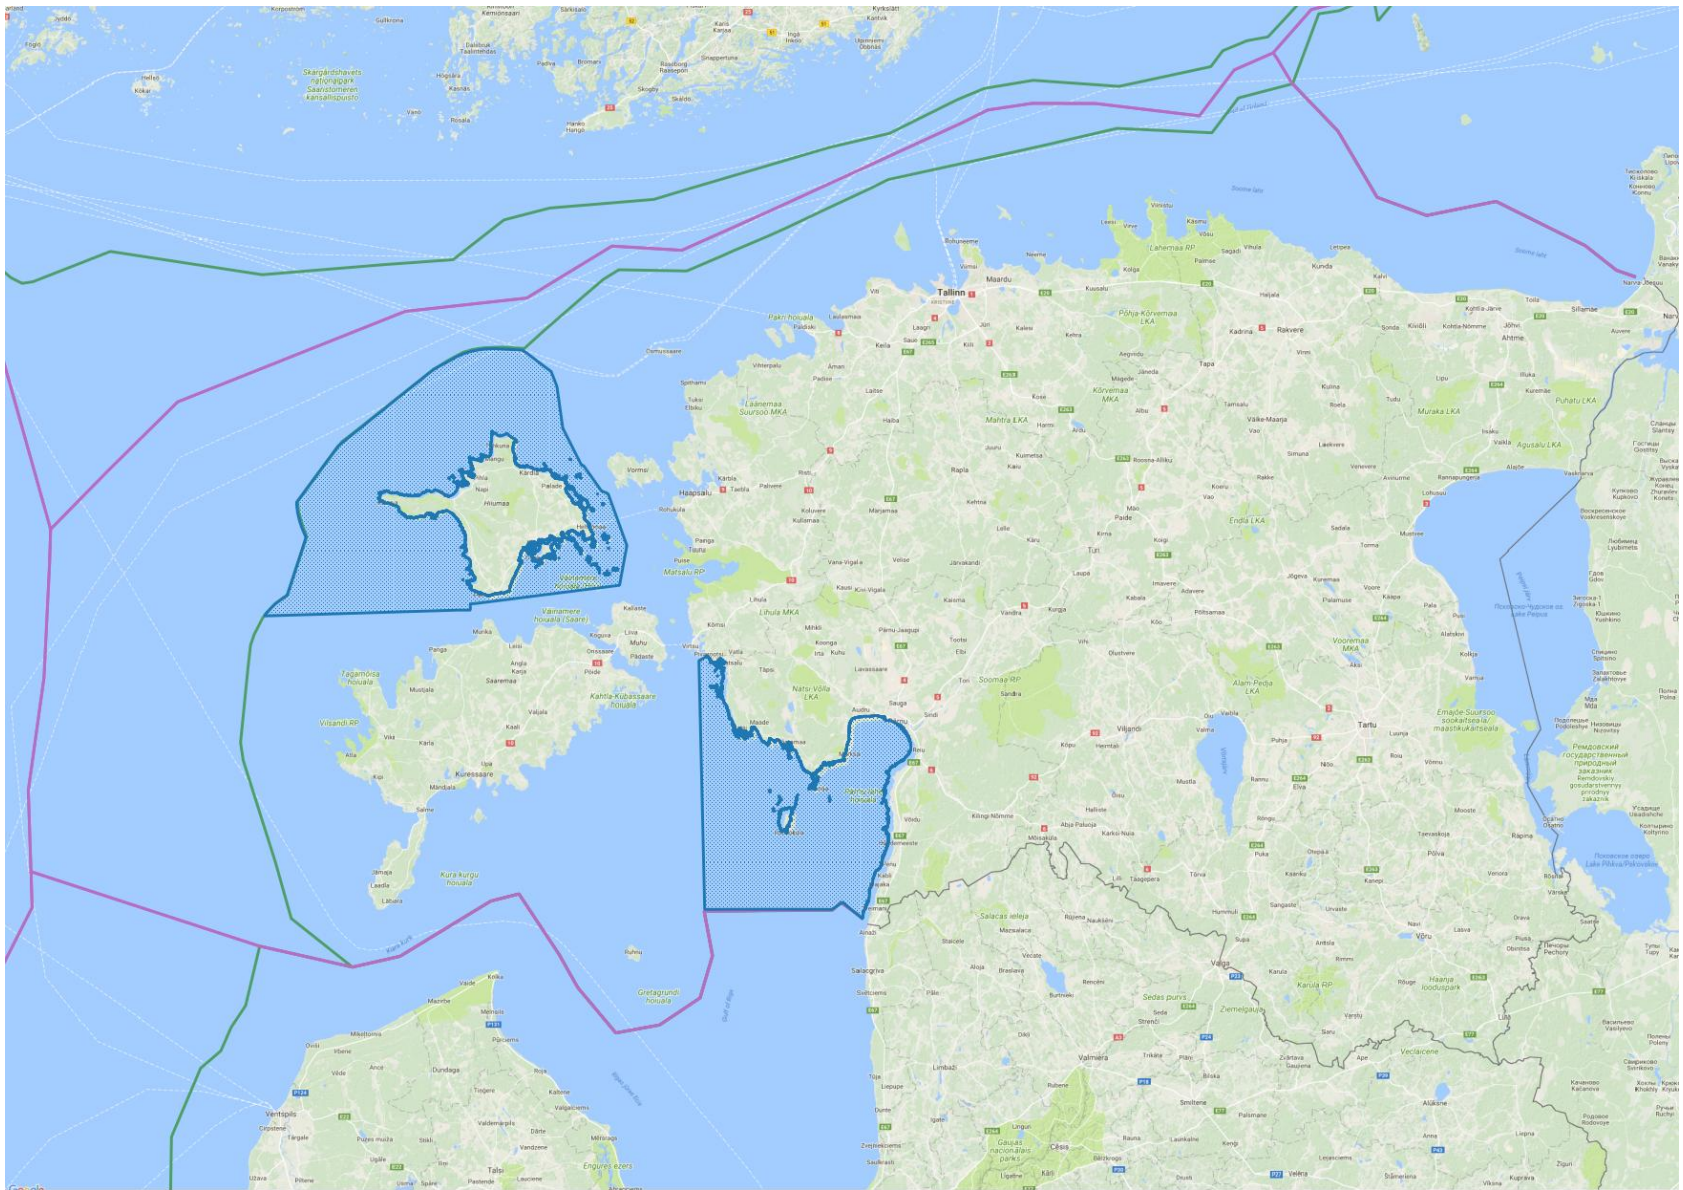

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR MARITIME AFFAIRS AND FISHERIES

Maritime Spatial Planning in Small Sea Spaces
Portorož - 15 & 16 March 2018

European
MSP Platform

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR MARITIME AFFAIRS AND FISHERIES

Maritime Spatial Planning in
Small Sea Spaces
Portorož - 15 & 16 March 2018

Conclusion

Being a country with a relatively small sea space gives at least one great advantage:
we have the opportunity to agree on a national level how and what do we value our marine areas in a long term perspective.

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR MARITIME AFFAIRS AND FISHERIES

Maritime Spatial Planning in
Small Sea Spaces
Portorož - 15 & 16 March 2018

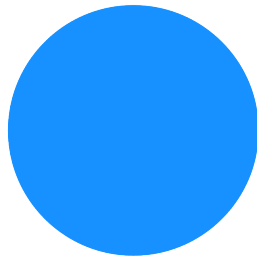

European
MSP Platform

REPUBLIC OF ESTONIA
MINISTRY OF FINANCE

ESTONIA

Thank you!

Anni Konsap

anni.Konsap@fin.ee

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

DIRECTORATE-GENERAL FOR MARITIME AFFAIRS AND FISHERIES

Maritime Spatial Planning in
Small Sea Spaces
Portorož - 15 & 16 March 2018

European
MSP Platform